Dear Sir,

Sub: Cubring the Menace of Ragging in Educational Institutions – Reg.
Ref: Your Letter No.DE-167-2015/941, Dt.16.04.2015.

Following your letter dt.16.04.2015, we are here with submitting the details as per your proforma regarding measures taken to curb ragging.

We wish to inform you that we have constituted an anti-ragging committee and an anti-ragging squad consisting of faculty members, wardens of both boys and girls hostels and students. Phone numbers of some of these members are prominently displayed in the notice boards to enable the freshers to contact, in case any incident of ragging takes place.

In addition to the above, in all the floors of the Dental College & Hospital building, hostels and various strategic locations in the campus, anti-ragging signs are erected and display boards mentioning punishment for students indulging in ragging are displayed.

Further, we have also distributed pamphlets among students regarding punishment for ragging and took undertaking from students and parents that indulgence in any act of ragging attracts punishment.

This is for your kind information.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely

(Dr.K.Gangadhara Prasad)

students who fail to have the required attendance will not be sent for University examinations. The attendance by the students will be faithfully recorded by the teaching staff and the college authorities will not yield to any external of parental pressure in this connection.

Students attendance will be periodically displayed on the college notice board for information. Also, if a student is showing less interest in studies and declining in attendance and performance the matter will be brought to the notice of the parents. Parents are requested to take cognizance of such information and advise their wards accordingly.

Students are expected to send a leave letter to college office in case of unexpected and unavoidable absence.

Leave for medical reasons will not be considered for calculation of attendance. Intimation of medical condition and requesting leave is only a courtesy extended to the college by the student.

Students are forbidden to take an active part in political agitations or agitations directed against the authority of government. Students are also advised not to involve themselves in any public or mass movements which seem undesirable and bring down the image of the institution.

RAGGING:

Students are forbidden from teasing, embarrassing or causing any bodily injury to any student either inside or outside the College or Hostels. Such activities will be severely dealt with and attract punishment in the form of dismissal/expulsion from the College. There shall be no ragging in the college or hostels or during traveling. Persons indulging in ragging activities will be expelled from the college and suitable criminal proceedings will be lodged against them.

In case the applicant for admission is found to have indulged in ragging in the past or if it is noticed later that he has indulged in ragging, admission may be refused or he shall be expelled from the educational institution.
